A few hours left to win prizes

Entries for the transformation competition are rolling in. Already the competition boxes were filled to the brim and had to be replaced.

If you did not yet enter the competition by completing the competition form on page four of the previous Transforma we remind you to do so not later than Friday 28 October at 09:00. On the Main Campus forms are available at the helpdesk in the Flippie Groenewoud Building, the Information centre on the Thakaneng Bridge and in the foyer of the Medical Faculty in the Francois Retief Building. On the Qwaqwa Campus entries can be placed in Room 2044 and on the Vista Campus in Room D211.

On 2 November 2005 a panel of judges will meet. They will go through all the entries and decide on twelve finalists. The judges are Prof. Teuns Verschoor, Vice-Rector: Academic Operations, Dr Ezeekiël Moraka, Vice-Rector: Student Affairs, Ms Leatitia Pienaar, Editor: Publications, Ms Suzan Mshumpela, Head: Programmes, Marketing and Fund Raising, Ms Lacea Loader, Media Representative for the UFS, Mr Graeme

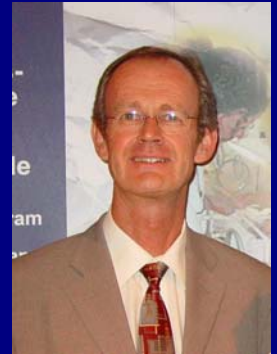

Bradley, SRC President for the Main Campus and Mr Julius Kompfi, SRC President for the Vista Campus.

The names of the twelve finalists as well as their answers to the question "What must change at the UFS and why?" will be published in November.

Complete your form, put it in your nearest competition box before 28 October and who knows you may be one of the twelve finalists.

The winners of respectively the R500, R300 and R200 gift vouchers from Kloppers will be announced early in 2006.
