1. GENERAL INFORMATION

N.B. It is important that students know the general University regulations and the Faculty regulations that apply to their degree/diploma programmes.

1.1 General University Regulations

The general University regulations that apply to all students and faculties are set out in the University's "General" Calendar book. Among the general regulations are those that deal with matters such as:

- what qualifications one must have to be admitted to study at the University
- how to register for a course. (These regulations include details on how to change courses, register for simultaneous courses, and whether credit will be given for work done at other tertiary institutions.)
- what is required to pass a course, or to be awarded a distinction mark. (These regulations include rules and details about tests, examinations and special examinations, rules about marks, rules that apply if a student misreads the examination timetable, and rules about readmitting students to or excluding students from courses.)

1.2 Faculty Regulations

Faculty regulations relate specifically to the degree and diploma programmes offered by the Faculty of the Humanities. These regulations are to be found in this book.

1.3 General requirements to be admitted as a student to the Faculty

Generally students may register for courses offered by the Faculty of the Humanities if they qualify to study at the University. Some degree, diploma and certificate courses offered by the Faculty of the Humanities require students to have qualifications in addition to those that the University requires for general admission. Students must look at the degree and diploma programmes below to see if they qualify for a particular course.

1.4 Assessing students: Tests

Students are tested on each module "continuously" and "summatively". That means that they are tested on a part of the module as the module progresses (continuous testing), and are tested again on the module as a whole at the end of the course (summative test).

Though all modules are tested continuously and summatively, in practice the way the different modules are tested varies, and students must read the study guide of each particular module carefully to see exactly how that module is tested.

1.5 Examinations

Students of a module that does not use the promotion system and students with a module mark below 65% must write the examination for that module. To pass the module, a student must have a combined mark (that is, the module mark combined with the examination mark) of at least 50%, and the mark in the examination must be at least 40%. This mark is the Final Mark.

The University has two examination sessions per semester: in June and July for the semester modules of the first semester; in November and January for the semester modules of the second semester (unless specified otherwise) and for year modules. Students can decide whether they wish to write in the first session or the second session.

Students who write in the first examination session and get a Final Mark below 50% (i.e. they fail the module) may write again in the second examination session if they get 40% or more in the first session and their Final Mark after the first session is 45% or more. A student's best result will be the Final Mark.

Students who do not write in the first examination session do not have to give any reason for not writing: they are automatically free to write in the second session

Students who miss the first and the second examination sessions have no further opportunity to write the examination for a module. They will have to repeat the module.

Formal examinations of the University are by a paper of at least one hour for each module that carries 8 credits or more.

Students are awarded a qualification only when they have completed all the required modules successfully. Any module outstanding has to be repeated under the conditions of 1.1.

Students are awarded a distinction in a module if the Final Mark (module mark or combined mark) is 75% or more.

1.6 Timetable Clashes

The onus is on students to compile their curricula in such a way that they have no timetable clashes in either lectures or examinations.

2. BACHELOR DEGREES, UNDERGRADUATE DIPLOMAS AND CERTIFICATES

---

2.1 Students may gain their first qualifications in any of the following three areas of study:

1. Letters and Philosophy
2. Arts
3. Social Sciences

These three disciplines offer the various first degrees, diplomas and certificates that are mentioned on the Contents Page of this Calendar Book. (The three disciplines also offer postgraduate courses that are described in the Humanities Year Book for Postgraduate Studies.)

Nearly all the Humanities degree courses are Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) courses (from the Latin Baccalaureus Artium) or Bachelor of Social Science (B.Soc.Sc.) courses (from the Latin Baccalaureus Societatis Scientiae) and take a minimum of three years to complete. Occasionally a degree course is known by some name other than a Bachelor of Arts degree or Bachelor of Social Science degree, and occasionally the length of the course is other than three years. Where the name is different, or the length is different this is specifically mentioned.

2.2 Explaining the terms courses, modules, codes and credits

The three fields in the Faculty of Humanities offer students a wide variety of choices. But within this wide area, each degree, diploma or certificate places a limit on students' choices and makes them concentrate on specific "courses". For example, B.A. (to take the widest of the Bachelor degree courses) requires students to have at least two major courses. These are courses that students take for all three years of study. Students will also have minor courses; these are courses that they study for only one or two years.

Each course is divided up into "modules", which are more-or-less self-contained parts of that course. For example, Philosophy is a course. It offers the following four first year modules: "Introduction to philosophy, worldview interpretation and ethical decision-making"; "The structure of experienced reality"; "Philosophical anthropology" and "Value paradigms and medical ethics". These four modules make up the first year course of Philosophy.

Each module is known by a code that contains useful information. To take first year Philosophy again: the code for the module "Introduction to philosophy, worldview interpretation and ethical decision-making" is WYS114. The WYS part gives the course, which is Philosophy. The first digit of the number (i.e. the first 1) gives the year of study: it is a first year module. The second digit (i.e. the second 1 gives the semester: odd numbers indicate first semester, even numbers indicate second semester. For example, WYS124 is a second semester module). The last digit gives the number of credits the module carries: multiply the last digit 4 by four, giving 16: WYS114 carries 16 credits.

Students must know how many credits each module carries, as each course requires a certain number of credits for a student to pass.

2.3 The order in which students may take modules

The requirements for being able to take a module are set in the General Regulations (Reg. A8). In general, unless Departments permit modules to be taken in another order, students are accepted to later modules only if they have successfully completed earlier, preliminary modules.

2.4 Changes to courses and codes; students wishing to reregister under the new course system

Students who are registered for degrees or diplomas no longer listed in the Calendar of the Faculty of the Humanities may nevertheless under normal circumstances complete their courses in accordance with the Calendar of the year that they registered.

Students who registered before course changes may change their registration to an equivalent new degree or diploma programmes outlined in this Calendar. Students changing their registration must consult the lecturer in charge of the course about the credits they have and about what additional courses they may have to take.

2.5 Regulations for the shift from 8 credit modules to 16 credit modules

Students must take note that the modules listed below were originally 8 credit modules which are increased to 16 credit modules. The new 16 credit modules are listed under the heading "New codes". Students may only repeat the 8 credit modules in the subsequent year. If more than one year lapses before a student repeats the modules, the student has to register for the appropriate 16 credit module.

1. CAREER PROSPECTS

The Bachelor of Arts degree offers students a broadly formative education that is useful in any occupation requiring a culturally developed perspective. It provides students who intend specialising in a particular discipline with a meaningful context; it is beneficial to people in any leadership position.

2. CURRICULUM

The curriculum (comprising 384 credits over 3 years) is made up as follows:

- (1) Compulsory skills modules (32 credits)
- (2) Two compulsory basic culture courses (16 credits each course
2 x 16 = 32 credits)
- (3) Students must choose one compulsory language course
(32 credits)
- (4) At least two compulsory major courses (a total of at least 96 credits in each course, 2 x 96 = 192 credits)
- (5) Students must acquire all further 96 credits they need to make up the 384 credits prescribed for the B.A. degree from the subjects listed below.

As the degree requires a minimum of 384 credits, students should register each year for modules carrying about 128 credits.

2.4 A choice of at least two major subjects

Students must choose two "major" subjects from the list that follows 2.5 below. Students take these subjects for three years, registering each year in each of the two chosen subjects for modules carrying a minimum of 32 credits. Students may develop the subjects they chose under 2.2 or 2.3 into major subjects, but must then take additional modules to make sure they fulfil the requirement of 384 credits for the B.A. degree.

2.5 The option part (minimum of 96 credits)

Students must acquire all further 96 credits they need to make up the 384 credits prescribed for the B.A. degree from the subjects listed below.

3. THE LIST OF SUBJECTS AND MODULES

1. CAREER PROSPECTS

The Bachelor of Arts degree offers students a broadly formative education that is useful in any occupation requiring a culturally developed perspective. It provides students who intend specialising in a particular discipline with a meaningful context; it is beneficial to people in any leadership position.

2. ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

In order to be admitted to the B.A. Four-year curriculum a student must have an endorsed Senior Certificate and a M count of 24 to 27 points.

3. CURRICULUM

The curriculum is made up as follows over a period of 4 study years:

Development modules

- (1) Two compulsory development modules (64 credits) offered in the first year of study.
- (2) Two compulsory development modules (64 credits) offered in the second year of study.
- (3) A student who has passed all the development modules and mainstream modules of 64 credits may, with the approval of the Dean, articulate to another relevant mainstream programme, provided that the duration of such studies, as required by the extended programme, is not decreased.

The following mainstream modules must be included in the curriculum:

- (4) Compulsory skills modules including Community Service Learning (32 credits).
- (5) Two compulsory basic culture subjects (16 credits each subject 2 x 16 = 32 credits).

- (6) Students must choose one compulsory language subject (32 credits).
- (7) At least two compulsory major subjects, including a language or languages (a total of at least 96 credits in each subject, 2 x 96 = 192 credits).
- (8) A number of modules (a minimum of 32 credits) from the lists below.

INFORMATION

The curriculum has been developed to (i) ensure that successful learners will be competent to apply relevant knowledge, skills, principles and methods in the field of management, and (ii) prepare graduates for postgraduate studies. Learners will be provided with appropriate knowledge to gain competence in:

- demonstrating their critical understanding of managerial knowledge, skills and applications;
- developing analytical perspectives in the field of management, which will provide opportunities for continued personal growth and their making rewarding contributions to society and industry;
- their ability effectively to formulate and implement managerial strategies; and
- dealing efficiently with problems and issues related to and affecting management.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Consult the University's General Admission Requirements, as well as Faculty Admission Requirements.

TIMETABLE CLASHES

A student is required to follow the curriculum, adhering to the timetable for lecture venues and the examination, and he/she is responsible to ensure that no timetable clashes occur.

CURRICULUM

A student in the B.A. (Management) degree must select a curriculum that is consistent with faculty and general regulations, following the outline below.

B.A. students who would like to study Business Management at postgraduate level, must successfully complete OBS234 as an elective in the second year of study, for which at least Grade 12 Mathematics

(SG) or STK114 & STK124 are required. STK114 and STK124 do not form part of the B.A. (Management) curriculum, and must be taken in addition to the prescribed 384 credits.

Composition of the Curriculum

The curriculum consists of 384 credits and is offered over a three-year period. The student has to structure his/her curriculum in such a way that he/she includes approximately 128 credits per year (3 x 128 = 384 credits).

1. CAREER PROSPECTS

The Bachelor's Degree in Language Studies provides a grounding in the critical, concise and expressive use of language that is invaluable in many walks of life. Immediate applications of the degree are in careers such as translating, interpreting, editing, copywriting, reviewing, publishing, journalism and education.

2. ADMISSION TO THE DEGREE AND TO COURSES

In addition to the general requirements to be admitted as a student to the University, students are admitted to certain courses only if they fulfil further requirements or with consent from the Head of Department of the particular course.

- (1) Students wishing to take French, German and Sesotho (other than as beginner or non-mother tongue courses) must satisfy the relevant Head of Department that they have the required standard.
- (2) In special cases, students (such as drama students) may be admitted to third-year courses in German provided that the prescribed works are available in translation.

3. CURRICULUM

The curriculum is made up in each of the three years of

- (1) a compulsory basic part amounting to 24 credits. The four basic modules may be taken in any of the three years of study;
- (2) a compulsory core part amounting to 40 credits. The five core modules have to be taken in the second and third years of study;
- (3) a compulsory cultural courses part, in which 32 credits must be obtained from one of the following: Anthropology, Art History and Visual Culture Studies, History, Philosophy and Political Science;
- (4) a main part in which students must obtain 192 credits in two major courses over the three years of study. These major courses must be chosen from the following languages: Afrikaans/Dutch, Afrikaans, English, French, German, Greek, Hebrew, Latin, Sesotho and Sign Language. In consultation with the programme coordinator, students may, however, request that the credits to be obtained at third year level in one of the language courses be replaced by 32 credits at third-year level in an optional course as stipulated in (5).

- (5) an option part in which 96 credits must be obtained from a wide variety of modules. At least 64 credits must be obtained in one of the optional courses. The compulsory cultural course selected in accordance with requirement stated in (3), may also serve as the subject in which these 64 credits are obtained

REG. B13    BACCALAUREUS MUSICAE
B.Mus.
Study code: 1341

384 credits

1. CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

The B.Mus. offers a wide choice of modules, enabling students to prepare for a variety of careers. These include administration of music at institutions; teaching at schools, music centres or privately; composing; performing as a soloist at intermediate level, in an orchestra or ensemble, or as a session musician; acting as a choral director, music advisor and arranger, recording and sound technician, music critic, copyist, and writer of popular music.

2. ADMISSION TO THE DEGREE

- 2.1 In addition to the general requirements to be admitted as a student to the University, students must pass an evaluation test set by the Department of Music. Students who score less than 65% in the test may be conditionally admitted to the B.Mus. degree provided they take and pass the Systematic Music Studies modules SMS254 and SMS264 in addition to their other modules.
- 2.2 Students must have an adequate knowledge of either Afrikaans or English.

3. FURTHER GENERAL COURSE DETAILS

- 3.1 Music listening (2 periods a week) is compulsory for all music students during the first year of study for B.Mus. and B.A. (Mus.).
- 3.2 Students wishing to take Practical Teaching (POR) 304 in the third year of study must take the Instrumental Subject Teaching modules in their second and third years.
- 3.3 Students wishing to obtain the Post-graduate Certificate in Education (PGCE) must consult the entrance requirements for the PGCE.
- 3.4 Students wishing to continue to the Honours degree after completing B.Mus. must have the following modules: for Honours in Applied Music Studies or Jazz, 3 years of Applied Music Studies at levels A or B; for Honours in Historical Music Studies, 3 years in Historical Music Studies; for Honours in Systematic Music Studies, 3 years in Systematic Music Studies; for Honours in Music Education and Practice, 2 years in Music Education and Practice.

- 3.5 For the following second and third year modules, the previous module serves as prerequisites:
- Applied Music Studies (208, 308, 204, 304, 200, 300)
  - Jazz Improvisation and Jazz Arrangement
  - Keyboard Skills
  - Systematic Music Studies (SMS214 for 224; SMS224 for 314)
  - Composition
  - Orchestration
  - Music Technology
- 3.6 Instrumental Subject Teaching of at least one instrument (MET214-224 and 314-324) is compulsory in both the second and third years of study.

4. APPLIED MUSIC STUDIES

- 4.1 For Applied Music Studies an instrument must be selected from those mentioned below. Registration for an instrument depends on the availability of a staff member to teach it. (The code of each instrument is as given.)

- 4.2 Compulsory components of Applied Music Studies:
- students with Applied Music Studies at levels A and B must take part in chamber music OR jazz ensemble in all three years. This does not apply to Voice students.
  - students taking a keyboard instrument at levels A and B in the second year of study must take accompaniment of a vocal performer.
  - students taking Organ 104 or 108 must take organ building.
- 4.3 With permission of the Portfolio Manager: Applied Music Studies
- students who choose a second instrument in Applied Music Studies may take it at level B instead of level C. (This is a special concession)
  - students who start Applied Music Studies at level C may change to level B in the second or third years of study.
- 4.4 Students wishing to take an orchestral instrument or Voice as Applied Music Studies at level B must either have passed at least Grade 5 in Piano or Organ, or take Keyboard Skills (KBS) 114-124 and/or 214-224, or a keyboard instrument at level C (code 104) in addition to their other modules.
- 4.5 Students may be admitted to Voice at level B without prior vocal training provided they show aptitude, and if they comply with the regulation in 4.4.
- 4.6 To be admitted to examinations in Applied Music Studies, students must (1) attend at least 80% of the regular departmental concerts and performance classes and (2) in the first year perform at least once during the second semester and in the second and third years perform at least once per semester in their major instrument.
- 4.7 Depending on the chosen Applied Music module, examinations take place in September or November. There will be no separate second session for Applied Music Studies and students who qualify for a second examination must repeat the examination within 48 hours of the results being announced.
- 4.8 Except with the special permission of the Department of Music, no piece may be presented more than once for examination.
- 4.9 At least one instrument must be taken at least at level C for both the second and third years of study (module codes 204 and 304).
- 4.10 Students may only register for practical modules at level A (codes 200 and 300) after an audition with a departmental panel. The practical examination at the end of the previous year will simultaneously be regarded as audition. Students who intend to

1. CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

The B.A.(Music) degree offers a wide choice of modules, enabling students to prepare for a variety of careers. These include teaching at schools, music centres or privately; performing as a soloist at intermediate level, in an orchestra or ensemble, as a session musician; and acting as a choral director and music advisor.

2. ADMISSION TO THE DEGREE

- 2.1 In addition to the general requirements to be admitted as a student to the University, students must pass an evaluation test set by the Department of Music. Students who score less than 65% in the test may be conditionally admitted to the B.A. (Music) degree provided they take and pass the Systematic Music Studies modules SMS254 and SMS264 in addition to their other modules.
- 2.2 Students must have an adequate knowledge of either Afrikaans or English.

3. FURTHER GENERAL COURSE DETAILS

- 3.1 Music listening (2 periods a week) is compulsory for all music students during the first year of study for B.Mus. and B.A. (Mus.).
- 3.2 Students wishing to take Practical Teaching (POR) 304 in the third year of study must take the Instrumental Subject Teaching modules in their second and third years.
- 3.3 Students wishing to obtain the Post-graduate Certificate in Education (PGCE) must consult the entrance requirements for the PGCE.
- 3.4 Students wishing to continue to the Honours degree after completing B.Mus. must have the following modules: for Honours in Applied Music Studies or Jazz, 3 years of Applied Music Studies at levels A or B; for Honours in Historical Music Studies, 3 years in Historical Music Studies; for Honours in Systematic Music Studies, 3 years in Systematic Music Studies; for Honours in Music Education and Practice, 2 years in Music Education and Practice.

- 3.5 For the following second and third year modules, the previous module serves as prerequisites:
- Applied Music Studies (208, 308, 204, 304, 200, 300)
  - Jazz Improvisation and Jazz Arrangement
  - Keyboard Skills
  - Systematic Music Studies (SMS214 for 224; SMS224 for 314)
  - Composition
  - Orchestration
  - Music Technology
- 3.6 Instrumental Subject Teaching of at least one instrument (MET214-224 and 314-324) is compulsory in both the second and third years of study.

4. APPLIED MUSIC STUDIES

- 4.1 For Applied Music Studies an instrument must be selected from those mentioned below. Registration for an instrument depends on the availability of a staff member to teach it. (The code of each instrument is as given.)

Bassoon -----	FGT
Cello -----	TJL
Clarinet -----	KLR
Double Bass -----	KNB
Electronic Keyboard -----	KEY
Flute -----	FLT
French Horn -----	FRH
Guitar -----	GHT

Trumpet -----	TMP
Tuba -----	TUB
Viola -----	ALV
Violin -----	VIO
Voice -----	SAN

- 4.2 Compulsory components of Applied Music Studies:
- students with Applied Music Studies at levels A and B must take part in chamber music OR jazz ensemble in all three years of study. This does not apply to Voice students.
  - students taking a keyboard instrument at levels A and B in the second year of study must take accompaniment of a vocal performer.
  - students taking Organ 104 or 108 must take organ building.
- 4.3 With permission of the Portfolio Manager: Applied Music Studies
- students who choose a second instrument in Applied Music Studies may take it at level B instead of level C. (This is a special concession)
  - students who start Applied Music Studies at level C may change to level B in the second or third years of study.
- 4.4 Students wishing to take an orchestral instrument or Voice as Applied Music Studies at level B must either have passed at least Grade 5 in Piano or Organ, or take Keyboard Skills (KBS) 114-124 and/or 214-224, or a keyboard instrument at level C (code 104) in addition to their other modules.
- 4.5 Students may be admitted to Voice at level B without prior vocal training provided they show aptitude, and if they comply with the regulation in 4.4.
- 4.6 To be admitted to examinations in Applied Music Studies, students must (1) attend at least 80% of the regular departmental concerts and performance classes and (2) in the first year perform at least once during the second semester and in the second and third years perform at least once per semester in their major instrument.
- 4.7 Depending on the chosen Applied Music module, examinations take place in September or November. There will be no separate second session for Applied Music Studies and students who qualify for a second examination must repeat the examination within 48 hours of the results being announced.
- 4.8 Except with the special permission of the Department of Music, no piece may be presented more than once for examination.
- 4.9 At least one instrument must be taken at least at level C for both the second and third years of study (module codes 204 and 304).
- 4.10 Students may only register for practical modules at level A (codes 200 and 300) after an audition with a departmental panel. The practical examination at the end of the previous year will simultaneously be regarded as audition. Students who intend to

PROGRAMME IN COMMUNICATION AND INFORMATION PROFESSIONS

1. GENERAL ORIENTATION AND CAREER PROSPECTS

Learners can register for one of the following three degrees:

- B.A. (Corporate Communication)
- B.A. (Integrated Marketing Communication)
- B.A. (Media Studies)

The intention of each course is to provide the South African labour market with people equipped to meet the demands of our multilingual and multicultural society.

2. ADMISSION TO THE COURSES AND MODULES

- 2.1 Learners may register for any of the courses in the programme if they fulfil the general requirements to be admitted to the University.
- 2.2 Learners registering for B.A. (Integrated Marketing Communication), who must take the two compulsory Business Management modules OBS144 and OBS324, and learners registering for B.A. (Corporate Communication), who must take the compulsory OBS314 module, are exempted from the usual Grade 12 Mathematics precondition for learners taking these modules. (Please note: the Mathematics precondition does apply if learners take the second or third-year Business Management modules as chosen modules.)
- 2.3 If graduates of B.A. (Integrated Marketing Communication) want to continue with the honours degree in Marketing at the Faculty of Economic and Management Sciences, they must pass all undergraduate modules in Business Management.
- 2.4 All the modules offered in the Department of Communication and Information Studies (i.e. modules in of Communication Science, Industrial Communication and Information Science) are independent modules that may be taken in any order.

1. CAREER PROSPECTS

The B.A. (Corporate Communication) degree is intended to develop the knowledge and skills required for effective communication both within corporations and between corporations and external organisations. Typical positions for graduates of the degree are public relations practitioners, corporate communication consultants, corporate communication managers and corporate communication advisers.

2. CURRICULUM

The curriculum is made up of:

2.1 Compulsory modules in each of the three years.

2.2 Limited-option modules in which learners have a choice of two alternatives. Learners must choose carefully in their first year, as their choice determines what modules they are to take in their second and third years. Learners must choose one of the following two options:

Option 1: Learners choose one subject from the list below. They take this subject for the three years of study, and by the end of three years they must have modules totalling 64 credits in that subject. Learners may have a maximum of 32 credits on first year level, and a minimum of 8 credits at third year level in that subject.

- Anthropology
- Business Management
- Drama and Theatre Arts
- Economics
- Industrial Psychology
- Information Science
- Political Science
- Printmaking
- Psychology
- Sociology

Option 2: Learners choose two subjects from the list below. Learners must take the two subjects for three years of study. By the end of three years they must have 32 credits in each subject, and at least 16 of the credits in each subject must be on second and/or on third year level (That means 16 credits on first year level and 16 credits on second, or on second and third year levels).

- Anthropology
- Business Management
- Drama and Theatre Arts
- Economics
- Industrial Communication (other than the Industrial Communication modules already being taken in the compulsory part of the course)
- Industrial Psychology
- Information Science
- Labour Law
- Modern Languages
- Political Science
- Printmaking
- Psychology
- Sociology

In exceptional cases learners may consult the programme director for consent to take a subject that has not been listed but which may be relevant in particular circumstances.

2.3 A free-option module in each of the three years. Learners must choose one additional module of 8 credits from any of the subjects already mentioned or from any other subject for which they may register.

2.4 A business language in the first year. Learners must choose two 8-credit modules or one 16-credit module from the following: Afrikaans for the Professions, Business English, French or German.

1. CAREER PROSPECTS

The B.Soc.Sc. (Human and Societal Dynamics) degree is valuable in careers where the knowledge of people, relationships and societies is important, typically in urban and rural planning, human resources management, the diplomatic services, community development, the police service, correctional services, the public sector, non-governmental organisations and social and market research.

2. CURRICULUM

Depending on whether a specialist degree or a broader, more general degree is preferred, students may choose from four options: a degree with

- (1) four major subjects;
- (2) three major subjects with further modules in a minor course;
- (3) two major subjects together with a limited number of modules at the second-year level from other subjects; or
- (4) two major subjects with a wider choice of accompanying modules.

The four three-year curricula options from which students must choose are made up as follows:

2.1 Students who wish to graduate with four major subjects need:

- (1) 96 credits from each of the three subjects in Table A (see 4 below). That is, they must have 32 credits per year in each subject (a total of 288 credits in three years); and
- (2) 96 credits from any subject in Table B (see 4 below).

- (3) A compulsory 8 credit community service-learning module (CSL112/122) must be taken in the final year.

2.2 Students who wish to graduate with three major subjects need:

- (1) 96 credits from each of two subjects in Table A: that is, 32 credits per year from each subject (making a total of 192 credits over three years); and
- (2) either 96 credits from the third subject in Table A and 64 credits from any subject in Table B or 96 credits from any subject in Table B and 64 credits from the third subject in Table A; and
- (3) a further 32 credits from any modules in Tables B and C.
- (4) A compulsory 8 credit community service-learning module (CSL112/122) must be taken in the final year.

2.3 Students who wish to graduate with two major subjects and two or three subjects at second-year level need:

- (1) 96 credits from each of two subjects in Table A: that is, 32 credits per year from each subject (making a total of 192 credits in three years); and
- (2) 64 credits from the third subject in Table A; and
- (3) 64 credits from any subject in Table B; and
- (4) 64 credits from another subject or from other subjects in Table B.
- (5) A compulsory 8 credit community service-learning module (CSL112/122) must be taken in the final year.

2.4 Students who wish to graduate with two major subjects and a wider choice of accompanying modules need:

- (1) 96 credits from each of two subjects in Table A: that is, 32 credits per year in each subject (making a total of 192 credits in three years); and
- (2) 64 credits from the third subject in Table A; and
- (3) 64 credits from any subject in Table B; and
- (4) 64 credits from any subject in Tables B and C, with a maximum of 16 credits per subject, except for Labour Law or a modern language in which 32 credits may be taken.

- (5) A compulsory 8 credit community service-learning module (CSL112/122) must be taken in the final year.

3. PARTICULAR REQUIREMENTS FOR SUBJECTS

- 3.1 Students intending to major in Criminology (that is, intending to earn 96 credits in Criminology) must take the modules KRM214 (16 credits), KRM314 (16 credits) and KRM344 (16 credits). Other modules in Criminology are optional.
- 3.2 Students intending to major in Psychology, must take all the following modules: PSY112, PSY152, PSY124, PSY212, PSY232, PSY224, PNA332, PNA322, PTV352 and PSY322. Students who intend to continue with an Honours degree in Psychology, are strongly advised to take PTV312 and PSY342 as additional modules. Please note that PNA332 is a prerequisite for PNA322.
- 3.3 Students intending to major in Sociology (that is, intending to earn 96 credits in Sociology) must take the modules SOS314 (16 credits) and SOS324 (16 credits). Modules are otherwise optional.
- 3.4 Students who wish to apply for acceptance to the honours in Psychology must take the PSY112, PSY152, PSY124, PSY212, PSY232, PSY224, PNA332, PNA322, PTV352, PSY322, PTV312 and PSY342 modules.

1. ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Students must be in possession of an endorsed Senior Certificate with a M-count of 24-27 points.

2. CAREER PROSPECTS

The B.Soc.Sc. (Human and Societal Dynamics) degree is valuable in careers where the knowledge of people, relationships and societies is important, typically in urban and rural planning, human resources management, the diplomatic services, community development, the police service, correctional services, the public sector, non-governmental organisations and social and market research.

3. CURRICULUM

The duration of the B.Soc.Sc. (Human and Societal Dynamics), four-year curriculum, is four study years. The first academic year of the ordinary three year B.Soc.Sc.-degree (HSD) is extended to two years, and will be known as the first study year and the second study year.

Depending on whether a specialist degree or a broader, more general degree is preferred, students may choose from four options: a degree with

- (1) four major subjects;
- (2) three major subjects with further modules in a minor subject;
- (3) two major subjects together with a limited number of modules at the second-year level from other subjects; or
- (4) two major subjects with a wider choice of accompanying modules.

The four curricula options from which students must choose are made up as follows:

3.1 Students who wish to graduate with four major subjects need:

- (1) 96 credits from each of the three subjects in Table A (see 4 below). That is, they must have 32 credits per year in each subject (a total of 288 credits in three years); and
- (2) 96 credits from any subject in Table B (see 4 below).
- (3) A compulsory 8 credit community service-learning module (CSL112/122) must be taken in the final year.
- (4) Four development modules, namely:
  - VBL108 (32 credits)
  - MTH108 (32 credits)
  - ALC108 (32 credits) or AFA108 (32 credits)
  - ALC208 (32 credits) or AFA208 (32 credits)

3.2 Students who wish to graduate with three major subjects need:

- (1) 96 credits from each of two subjects in Table A: that is, 32 credits per year from each subject (making a total of 192 credits over three years); and
- (2) either 96 credits from the third subject in Table A and 64 credits from any subject in Table B or 96 credits from any subject in Table B and 64 credits from the third subject in Table A; and
- (3) a further 32 credits from any modules in Tables B and C.
- (4) A compulsory 8 credit community service-learning module (CSL112/122) must be taken in the final year.
- (5) Four development modules, namely:
  - VBL108 (32 credits)
  - MTH108 (32 credits)
  - ALC108 (32 credits) or AFA108 (32 credits)
  - ALC208 (32 credits) or AFA208 (32 credits)

3.3 Students who wish to graduate with two major subjects and two or three subjects at second-year level need:

- (1) 96 credits from each of two subjects in Table A: that is, 32 credits per year from each subject (making a total of 192 credits in three years); and
- (2) 64 credits from the third subject in Table A; and
- (3) 64 credits from any subject in Table B; and
- (4) 64 credits from another subject or from other subjects in Table B.
- (5) A compulsory 8 credit community service-learning module (CSL112/122) must be taken in the final year.

- (6) Four development modules, namely:
  - VBL108 (32 credits)
  - MTH108 (32 credits)
  - ALC108 (32 credits) or AFA108 (32 credits)
  - ALC208 (32 credits) or AFA208 (32 credits)

3.4 Students who wish to graduate with two major subjects and a wider choice of accompanying modules need:

- (1) 96 credits from each of two subjects in Table A: that is, 32 credits per year in each subject (making a total of 192 credits in three years); and
- (2) 64 credits from the third subject in Table A; and
- (3) 64 credits from any subject in Table B; and
- (4) 64 credits from any subject in Tables B and C, with a maximum of 16 credits per subject, except for Labour Law or a modern language in which 32 credits may be taken.
- (5) A compulsory 8 credit community service-learning module (CSL112/122) must be taken in the final year.
- (6) Four development modules, namely:
  - VBL108 (32 credits)
  - MTH108 (32 credits)
  - ALC108 (32 credits) or AFA108 (32 credits)
  - ALC208 (32 credits) or AFA208 (32 credits)

4. PARTICULAR REQUIREMENTS FOR THE EXTENDED B.SOC.SC. DEGREE

In the first study year and the second study year the student must pass the following:

- 4.1 4 x 32 mainstream modules that are constituted as follows:
  - 32 credits first year Criminology modules
  - 32 credits first year Psychology modules
  - 32 credits first year Sociology modules
  - PLUS 32 credits first year modules from one of the following subjects:
    - Anthropology, Industrial Psychology, History, Communication Science or Political Science (thus a total of 128 credits for degree purposes).
  - AND

4.2 Four compulsory development modules must be taken:

Lifelong Learning VBL108 (32 credits)

Mathematical Literacy MTH108 (32 credits).

One of the following language development modules: Academic Language Course in English ALC108 (32 credits) or Afrikaans for Academic Purposes AFA108 (32 credits)

One of the following language development modules: Academic Language Course in English ALC208 (32 credits) or Afrikaans for Academic Purposes AFA208 (32 credits)

To be admitted to the second study year a student must pass both the development modules and must obtain at least 32 mainstream credits.

To be admitted to the third study year a student must pass all the development modules and at least 64 mainstream credits in total.

A student who has passed all the developmental modules and mainstream modules of 64 credits may, with the approval of the Dean, articulate to another relevant mainstream programme, provided that the duration of such studies, as required by the extended programme, is not decreased.

5. PARTICULAR REQUIREMENTS FOR SUBJECTS

5.1 Students intending to major in Criminology (that is, intending to earn 96 credits in Criminology) must take the modules KRM214 (16 credits), KRM314 (16 credits) and KRM344 (16 credits). Other modules in Criminology are optional.

5.2 Students intending to major in Psychology (that is, intending to earn 96 credits in Psychology), must take all the following modules: PSY112, PSY152, PSY124, PSY212, PSY232, PSY224, PNA332, PNA322, PTV352 and PSY322. Students who intend to continue with an Honours degree in Psychology, are strongly advised to take PTV312 and PSY342 as additional modules. Please note that PNA332 is a prerequisite for PNA322.

5.3 Students intending to major in Sociology (that is, intending to earn 96 credits in Sociology) must take the modules SOS314 (16 credits) and SOS324 (16 credits). Modules are otherwise optional.

PROGRAMME FOR SOCIAL SERVICE PROFESSIONS

1. GENERAL PROGRAMME INFORMATION

The Programme for Social Service Professions offers a B.SW. four-year degree.

2. ADMISSION TO THE DEGREE, ADMISSION TO THE THIRD AND FOURTH YEAR OF THE DEGREE, AND COURSE FORMALITIES

- 2.1 Students are admitted to the degree if they fulfil the general requirements for registration at the University.
- 2.2 Only a limited number of students will be accepted into the programme due to an insufficient number of practical training facilities. The closing date for applications of prospective first year students is 31 October. Late applications will be considered according to merit.
- 2.3 Under very exceptional circumstances, with the permission of the Head of the Department, students who have not passed all their Social Work modules may be accepted into the third year of the degree; but in general, students cannot take a later module without having passed the appropriate earlier module.
- 2.4 All third year Social Work modules have to be passed before admission to the fourth year modules can be obtained.
- 2.5 All clinical modules in the first semester of the fourth learning year have to be passed before admission can be obtained to the clinical modules of the second semester of the fourth learning year.
- 2.6 Students who interrupt their study for more than two years may resume only with special permission from the Dean in consultation with the Head of the Department.

3. IMPORTANT GENERAL DETAILS

- 3.1 Social work students registered for Social Work modules are legally obliged to register with the South African Council for Social Service Professions (SACSSP) from their second to fourth years. The registration subjects students to the ethical code and regulations of the Council.

- 3.2 The compulsory modules for the B.SW. degree require students to do clinical work under a staff member of the Department of Social Work, or under a registered social worker in the service of a welfare organization recognized by the University. Students must please note:
- (a) The Department of Social Work is solely responsible for arranging clinical work.
  - (b) Clinical work may include holiday work determined by the Department of Social Work.
  - (c) While doing clinical work, students must comply with the requirements of the South African Council for Social Service Professions.
  - (d) Students are responsible for all travel and subsistence costs during the clinical work. These costs are not included in the class fees.
- 3.3 During the fourth year, at their own cost, B.SW. students must research and report on a specialized area of social work.
- 3.4 Students are subject to the Rules for undergraduate students in the Department of Social Work.

4. CAREER PROSPECTS

The B.SW. degree will develop in students the appropriate intellectual, practical and social skills for them to act effectively in the broad social service field as a social worker.

The B.SW. is a four-year degree.

1. CURRICULUM

1.1 Core modules

All core modules are compulsory

1.2 Elective modules

Students choose any THREE subjects from the electives.

- In the FIRST elective (either Psychology, Sociology, Criminology, Anthropology, Communication Science or Sign Language) 48 credits have to be taken. (In other words, for one and a half years.)
- In the SECOND elective (either Psychology, Sociology, Criminology, Anthropology, Communication Science or Sign Language) 64 credits have to be taken. (In other words, for two years.)
- In the THIRD elective (either Psychology, Sociology or Criminology) a minimum number of 96 credits have to be taken. (In other words, for three years.)

This brings the total number of credits for electives to 208.

1.3 Fundamental modules

All fundamental modules are compulsory.

1.4 Transition Regulations

1.4.1 Phasing out of old curriculum begins in 2007 and ends in 2010.

1.4.2 One year's grace will be granted to repeat the 8 credit modules that have been failed or terminated under the old curriculum.

1.4.3 Grace is only granted during the year directly following the year of phasing out.

1.4.4 The department reserves the right to offer 8 credit modules simultaneously with 16 credit modules.
