- (b) Students who are more than 15 minutes late for an examination opportunity, will not be allowed to take the examination.
- (c) Students can only qualify for participation in the Additional mid-year/end-of- year examination if they have participated in and qualified for the main mid- year/end-of-year examination. If students carry over modules from the previous year, there might be clashes on the UFS venue and examination timetable(s) between carried over and current modules. These students will only be permitted to sit once for carried over modules during the additional mid-year/end-of-year examination. (The onus is on the student to draw attention to such a clash by referring this to the Head of Department). Current modules have to be written during the main mid-year/end-of-year examination.

- (d) The additional examination will take place after the main examination in the first and second semesters.
- (e) Important: To pass a module, a student has to achieve a minimum examination mark of 40% and a combined final mark of 50% to pass (refer to programme specific rules).

- (b) An original medical certificate of a registered physician, together with the prescribed form E001 of the UFS, should be submitted as a valid reason for failing to utilise the main examination opportunity. This certificate must be submitted to the Head of the School for Allied Health Professions, CR de Wet-Building, Room 227, within 48 hours. No further opportunity exists for students who participate in the additional examination in this way.
- (c) All assessment components of a module have to be completed in one assessment opportunity, should a student be granted an additional opportunity. (Refer to programme specific rules).
- (d) No additional examination opportunity exists to improve a student's final mark for modules that are presented in the Faculty of Health Sciences.
- (e) The additional examination opportunity of the first semester occurs immediately after the main examination opportunity and the additional examination of the second semester will occur immediately after the main examination of the second semester.
- (f) External assessors and moderators are used for the fourth year final examination. Only on recommendation of external assessors, a reassessment in only clinical/practical work may be granted as part of the first assessment opportunity.
- (g) Examination marks will be communicated to students through People Soft

- (a) Both the module mark and the examination mark each contribute 50% to the final combined mark.
- (b) Calculation of marks of students who qualify for the additional mid/end-of-year examination:
 - (i) If a student participated in the additional mid/end-of-year examination due to illness, the final combined mark is calculated as for the main mid/main end-of-year examination (i.e. module mark 50% and examination mark 50%). Rule AGB1.8(d) is also applicable. A combined mark of 50% is needed to pass the module.
 - (ii) If a student qualifies for an additional mid/end-of-year examination, the module mark and the examination mark of the additional mid/end-of-year examination will be calculated (50% = module mark and 50% = examination mark of the additional mid/end-of-year examination), provided that a final combined assessment mark of only 50% be awarded to students who pass. A combined mark of 50% is needed to pass a module.

Rule AGB1.9: Pass requirements

- (a) A student must pass all the modules of a particular year as indicated in the rules of the programme in order to progress to the next year of study
- (b) In order to pass a module, a final combined mark of at least 50% must be obtained. (Refer to exceptions in specific programmes).

Rule AGB1.10: Promotion to the following semester or year of study

- (a) A student with one outstanding module in the first semester may continue with modules in the second semester, on condition that the module is not a prerequisite for the second semester module. A student with more than one outstanding module of the first semester may apply for continuation with modules of the second semester, only with special consent from the Dean. (Excluding the first semester of the first year (Refer to Rule AGB1.13).
- (b) If a student must still present him-/herself for an additional mid/end-of-year examination in one of the modules after the classes of the next semester have already commenced, such a student will only be conditionally registered for the modules in the new semester, until such time as the results of the module have been announced.
