

Journal for Estate Planning Law - Information for authors

1. Manuscripts may be submitted in Afrikaans or English. The desired length of articles is 7 000 words, while 4 500 words is regarded as the minimum and 11 000 as the maximum.
2. Two typed copies of manuscripts must be submitted. In addition submission on computer disc in MS-Word or WordPerfect files. In general, word processing should be kept as simple as possible.
3. When submitted, manuscripts must be in finally edited, carefully redacted and well-finished form.
4. Manuscripts are considered for publication on condition that the Editor reserves the right to make such alterations as he sees fit to bring the style and presentation into line with the practice of the Editorial Staff. If considerable changes are necessary, the manuscript may be returned to the author for correction or approval. Copyright is transferred to Journal for Estate Planning Law on acceptance for publication.
5. Titles should be short and concise. Supply suitable headings and subtitles where necessary. Number sections and subsections by means of Arabic figures and full stops, that is 3. is followed by 3.1 and 3.1.1 (up to a maximum of three levels).
6. References
Source references in the text must be in the Harvard style, as follows:
 - 1 Coetzee & Brink 1986:234-245.
 - 2 Du Plessis et al 1987a: 15 ev.
 - 3 Standard Bank v Neugarten 1987 3 SA 695 W:703 C-D.
 - 4 Standard Bank v Neugarten: 706.
 - 5 Tsutso 1962 2 SA 666 SR: 668-669.
 - 6 Close Corporations Act 69/186: sec 55(3)(6).
 - 7 Close Corporations Act: sec 56.
 - 8 GK 162 Government Gazette 1974: 103(4157).
 - 9 GK 162/1974: reg 3.
 - 10 Voet: 37 6 1.
7. Bibliography
A complete bibliography in the Harvard style must be provided, giving all relevant details. List all sources in the form of an alphabetical list according to author, in the following basic format:
Coetzee HJ
1977. Inflation in South Africa. Acta Economica 27(3):17-36.
Johnson HJ
1977. The effect of legal policy. American Law Review 36(2):23-42.
Snyman AL
1986. Menseregte en politieke hervorming. Van Rensburg 1986:1-34.
Van Rensburg CD (red)
1986. Menseregte in Suid-Afrika. 2de uitg. Pretoria: HAUM.
Voet J
1698-1704. Commentarius ad Pandectas. Vol 1. Den Haag: De Hondt.
8. Avoid uncommon abbreviations and acronyms. Stereotyped Latin terms such as per se must be italicized.
9. Full relevant details of the author, and if applicable, the origine of the article (for example a paper at a congress) must be provided.
10. Two summaries of as close as possible to 200 words in both Afrikaans and English must be included.
11. The author of the article receives five copies of the relevant number of the journal.
12. More detailed instructions to authors are available. Send the manuscript (plus a diskette, if applicable) to: The Editor, Journal for Estate Planning Law, Internal Box 85, UFS, Posbus 339, Bloemfontein 9300. Tel (051) 401-2268.