

On Settler Colonialism and Post-Conquest Constitutionness

As part of its first Faculty Research Day for 2021, the Faculty of Law at the University of the Free State invites you to a public lecture by Prof Tshepo Madlingozi, Director of the Centre for Applied Legal Studies at the University of the Witwatersrand.

Prof Madlingozi's lecture is titled, 'On Settler Colonialism and Post-Conquest Constitutionness: The Decolonising Constitutional Vision of African Nationalists of Azania/South Africa

Date: Tuesday 30 March 2021

Time: 13:30 to 15:00.

Please RSVP by email to Aldi Lombard at lombarda1@ufs.ac.za and you will be emailed the link to join the lecture online (Microsoft Teams).

Tshepo Madlingozi is an Associate Professor and the Director of the Centre for Applied Legal Studies at WITS University. He has master's degrees in both Law and Sociology, and he received his PhD degree from Birkbeck, University of London. He is a Research Associate at the Chair for Critical Studies in Higher Education at Nelson Mandela University. He is the co-editor of the 'South African Journal on Human Rights' and is part of the management team of the Pretoria University Law Press. He is a co-editor of 'Socio-economic Rights in South Africa: Symbols or Substance' (Cambridge UP) and a co-editor of 'Introduction to Law and Legal Skills in South Africa', 2nd edition (Oxford UP South Africa). He sits on the boards of the following civil society organisations: Amandla.mobi; Free State Centre for Human Rights, University of the Free State; the Council for the Advancement of the South African Constitution; the Rural Democracy Trust; and Mining-Affected Communities United in Action/Women-Affected by Mining Action. He is also a member of the advisory board of Health Justice Initiative. He was a founding board member of the Socio-Economic Rights Institute of South Africa (SERI) and the Zimbabwe Exiles Forum. For thirteen years (2015-2018), he worked as National Advocacy Coordinator and later as the Chairperson with and for the Khulumani Support Group, a 120 000-strong social movement of victims and survivors of apartheid.